

Fieldwork Time Log

Student's Name: Ian Kavanaugh Fieldwork Project: Local History

Mentor's Name: Giampaolo Digregorio

Date	Correspondence: Provide a record of each time you correspond with your mentor (phone & email) and the topic of your conversation.
9-2-16	Email: Introduced myself and explained what Applied Learning Project is and what my ideas were for my project.
9-7-16	Email: Planned a meeting time, date, and location.
9-12-16	Email: Update on progress in research at the Copeland House. Introducing the idea of making collection of oral histories part of the project and the "Then and Now" idea as part of the project. Invitation to meet and greet.
9-21-16	Email: Changed date of meet and greet. Planning an in person meeting and fieldwork hours.
10-31-16	Email: Setting up a date for meeting to go over where the project is going and meeting with the president of the historical society. Talk about having him sign off on my fieldwork hours.
11-8-16	Email: Rescheduling meeting to discuss project with president of historical society.
12-5-16	Email: Report on progress of website and scanning historical society documents. I gave him the password to the website so he could access the unpublished version of the website.
1-25-17	Email: Update on the website and the president of the historical society's comments.
2-17-17	Email: Email to mentor about planning a meeting so we can look at the website together and troubleshoot some issues with the website. We also planned a time to go to Mansfield Cable Access so I could observe him film for his show.
3-8-17	We ran into each other quickly. I updated him on my project and how I've been helping with the Mansfield Mural Project.
3-11-17	Email: Sent an email to plan a meeting over April Vacation.

Date	Fieldwork with your Mentor: Provide a description of all work completed under the direct guidance of your mentor.	Number of Hours
-------------	--	------------------------

Applied Learning Project

9-10-16	Met my mentor for the first time at the Mansfield Public Library. He gave a presentation on Mansfield History with a focus on Mansfield's industries. I talked with him about my plans and introduced myself. He gave me a couple ideas of where to go for sources and introduced me to several members of the Mansfield Historical Society.	2
9-26-26	Research at Copeland House. Briefly met with mentor. President of the historical society talked to me requesting I work on collecting a "This Day in History" for days in Mansfield History. Exploring the artifacts in the basement of the Copeland House with president of the historical society and my mentor.	1.5
11-14-16	Met with mentor and president of the historical society to talk about website ideas and what should be included.	0.5
2-22-17	Met with mentor at the Mansfield Public Library. I showed him the website and we talked about a couple of ways that the website could be improved.	2

Total Hours 6

Applied Learning Project

Date	Independent Fieldwork: Provide a description of all fieldwork you complete independently.	Number of Hours
9-12-16	Tour of Copeland House, owned by the Mansfield Historical Society. Got to see the main resources that are available at the historical society and get a basic layout of Mansfield history. Tour by President of the Mansfield Historical Society, Kevin McNatt.	1.5
9-19-16	Research at Copeland House. Read articles written for Mansfield Newspaper by Harry Chase in his weekly column "This Old Town". Reading diary entries of Crocker Lovell, a Civil War soldier who lived in Mansfield. Talked to Kevin McNatt, about possible residents of Mansfield who could be contacted for the collection of oral histories.	1.5
10-10-16	Historical Society Meeting at Copeland House. "100 Years Ago in Mansfield". A presentation by a local historian on what Mansfield Looked like 100 years ago.	1.5
10-17-16	Research at Copeland House. Work on looking through Lovell's diary and old newspapers to find significant dates for the "This Day in History".	1.5
11-14-16	Copeland House: Met with mentor and president of the historical society to talk about website ideas. Then attended historical society meeting where we discussed the history of the Mansfield Police Department. Discussion about how to generate more interest in historical society events.	2.5
11-21-16	Copeland House: Scanned some old documents and photographs at the historical society. I saved them to a flash drive and later went home to add them to the website. I then talked with some members of the historical society to identify some buildings in some old post cards that would later be scanned.	1.5
12-4-16	Work at home on website to show for president of the historical society the next day. Many of the scanned photos had to be edited or converted from pdf files to jpg images because I accidentally scanned some of them to the wrong kind of file.	2
12-5-16	Copeland House: Scanning images for website. Talking with elderly residents for identifying some locations in photographs. Brief meeting with president of historical society to discuss website.	1.5
12-19-16	Copeland House: Scanning images for website. Brief meeting with president of the historical society so that I could get his email and send him information on website over vacation.	1
1-2-17	Work on website at home. Converting pdf files to jpg files. Emailing president of the historical society to give him information.	1.5

Applied Learning Project

1-9-17	Copeland House: Work digitizing photographs for the website. Talked to president of the historical society on possible changes to the website.	1.5
1-16-17	Copeland House: Work digitizing photographs for the website. Met retired police officer who went to the historical society for photos of old police chiefs. Worked with president of the historical society to organize old photographs of police chiefs.	1.5
1-23-17	Copeland House: Work digitizing photographs for the website. Reported to president of the historical society on website.	1
2-6-17	Copeland House: Downloaded some files that included photographs from a disc at the historical society onto my flash drive to bring home.	1
2-27-17	Work on the website at home. Preparing the website to present to the president of the historical society. Working on fixes to the website previously discussed with mentor.	2
2-27-17	Copeland House: went to Copeland house to present the finished website to the president of the historical society and look for advice. Talked to him about the possibility of creating an Instagram for the historical society.	1
3-6-17	Copeland House: Talked to some elder statesmen about town history. Moved some boxes that the historical society needed rearranged.	1.5
3-13-17	Copeland House: Talked to some elder statesmen about town history. Moved some boxes that the historical society needed rearranged.	1.5
3-20-17	Copeland House: Talked to some elder statesmen about town history. Moved some boxes that the historical society needed rearranged.	1.5
3-27-17	Copeland House: The president of the historical society assigned me a task. He wanted me to look through articles from the Mansfield News from the year 1960. He wanted me to look for an article mentioning the local boy scouts troop and a bell that was donated to them.	1.5
4-3-17	Copeland House: I kept working on the Mansfield News assignments. I finished looking at the articles from 1960. I started looking at articles from 1950.	1.5
4-3-17	Worked with Nancy on the social media for the Mansfield Mural Project. We took a look at the bumper stickers that came in the mail.	1.5

Total Hours 36